ROCKEFELLER'S JOKE ON WALL ST. MRS. SAMPSON ACCUSED OF MURDER

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

MAN SLAYS DAUGHTER: WOUNDS SON

Injured Man Prevents Karle Loose from Killing Rest of Family.

SLAYER ADMITS CRIME. degrade him.

Because of His Habits, Wife Had Him Taken to Court Yesterday.

his seventeen-year-old daughter est son, the Rev. Frederick Loose, of Yale, S. Dak., and would have carried out a frenzied plan of annihilating the entire family had not the wounded him and fought him down.

The baker had been a model father when his eldest daughter. Maria, mar at the Yorkville Theatre. There were incidents connected with his daughter's his married daughter, who had remained at home after she had become a

And it was because of his perpetual state of storm that the eldest son, the clergyman, came on from the northern prairies where he had established a little parish, to make peace in the family But the father had harped too long on clergyman, who had been the pride and joy of his life. Despairing of ever settling the family quarrel by gentle word. the son led the family yesterday to the Harlem Court, and Magistrate Crane commanded the sullen old man to go get, due, Comptroller Metz said, to a get, due, Comptroller Metz said, to a derived did not justify the rash expenditure.

Gave Family a Warning.

He went away from the courtroom

but look out," and he stamped away, The family sat late over their breakfast this morning.

They were discussing the Rev. Freder ick's bride whom they had never seen, and the three-weeks-old baby that had come into the world only ten days be fore he left his little parish in South flung open and the father lurched in. moment swaying from side to bling hand and fired, the butlet piercing the young girl's heart. As she dropped to the floor dead, the young clergyman started up, tumbled over his mother and brushed aside his sister Maria. He threw himself across scrambled over the table and threw himself upon his father, grappling him about the neck, and preventing him from raising the revolver for another Cummins was elected United States Sen-

Then he lost consiousness and his weight bere the old man to the weight bere the old man to the dead weight bore the old man to the The younger son, John, who had fallen

"Circulation Books Open to All."

YORK, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1908.

CZAR'S LAWYER TRIES TO SHOW POUREN CAME IN AS BIGAMIST

Intimates Perjury Also Against Russian Who Is Fighting Extradition-Defendant's Counsel Says. He Will Prove His

Jan Pouren's extradition suit brought | United States, but between objections by the Russian Government, was re-sumed this afternoon before United Pouren, no headway was made. States Commissioner Hitchcock, in the Mr. Parsons again objected and made

A broadside of questions were then family affairs and all intimating either

Client Is Considered Only a Revolutionist.

deral building, with the defendant, it clear that he would not consent to buren, on the stand for cross-examina-questioning Pourca on anything subsequent to his departure from Russia.

bigamy or perjury on entry into the hearing was granted.

G. B. AGNEW, ANTI-RACE TRACK SENATOR, GETS LICENSE TO MARRY

Author of the Bill Prohibiting Gambling Will Become a Benedict on Dec. 21- Miss Emily E. Gru-

Emily Dutille Grugan, daughter of Bedford Station, N. Fifty-third street. Senator Agnew gave 'Agnew his address as No. 9 West Fifty-sixth - The ushers will be Eliot Yuckerman.

gan to Be the Bride. be married. The bride will be Miss daughter of J. Pierrepont Edwards, of treet and his occupation as real estate Erskine Hewitt, Samuel Sloan Auchincloss and Edgar Allen Poe.

CITY BUDGET OF $148,446,904 PASSES ALDERMEN BY 41 TO 24

to him, to be soothed even by the gentle persuasions of the big blonde young Finance Committee Approves and Report Is Rushed Through, beat Jack's." With Few Dissenters Opposing on Ground of Extravagance and Discrimination Against Schools

With an item stricken out of the bud- | mittee's report because the results to total, the city budget, $148,446,904.83, was The roll call showed approval until the approved this afternoon by the Finance name of Matthew J. Crowley, of the without a ned or sign to wife or chil- of which Timothy P. Sullivan is the against the reduction in his borough.

SUSTAINS P. S. BOARD.

Would Wipe It Out.

ROBBED IN A HOTEL.

mmittee of the Board of Aldermen, Bronx, was reached. He protested them sent. Their astounding character dren, but late last evening he strode Chairman, and was adopted by a vote The vote of Comptroller Metz was dren, but late last evening he strode that his his bound into his home and planting his broad bulk in the doorway cried out in German:

"You'll all be sorry for this. I've been a good father and husband here. I've worked hard and kept sober. I go now, but look out." and he stamped away.

Chairman, and was adopted by a vote against its adoption. Alderman Sullivan also declaimed against its adoption and mentioned the worked hard and kept sober. I go now, but look out." and he stamped away.

TRYING TO FREE MEYERS.

Court Refuses Injunction Which Alleged Rothschild Agent Charged him to prison

With No Crime, Lawyer Says. K. Henry Rosenberg secured a writ of constitutionality of the law creating the habeas corpus for Joseph Monteflore confident that young Mr. Stafford was Public Service Commissioners raised by Meyers, the broker accused of swindling not evenly balanced mentally. An ex-His face was aflame, and he stood counsel for Adolph C. Gubner, as a tax- in the guise of an agent of the Rothspayer, who applied for a temporary in- childs, and he was brought from the brought to light the name of his father side as he tugged at a revolver that had junction restraining the city authorities Tombs to Justice McCall's part of the and upon inquiry Mr. Hood learned side as he tugged at a revolver that had caught in his jacket pocket.

Wife and children sat stupefied for a moment, until they saw the glistening steel leap up in the old man's hand.

Pierced the Girl's Heart.

Mata sprang up in her chair with a cry of fear, facing her father and stretching out her arms toward him in mute appeal. In an instant the father had levelled the weapon in lis trembiling hand and fired, the builet piercing

RORRED IN A HOTE!

Tombs to Justice McCall's part of the Supreme Court to-day. Tombs to Justice McCall's part of the Supreme Court to-day. The supreme Court to-day. He supreme Court to day and upon induity of the companies to day the carly to-day that while in a room control the table, and stretched out his hand to grip his father's wrist, but as he did so the parent fired again, the builet cleaving through the young ciergyman's breast and penetrating his left lung.

DR. BULL STILL HOPEFUL.

Wounded as he was the young man scrambled over the table and threw him.

BASEBALL RESULT IN JAPAN.

MAN FROM HEAVEN ROCKEFELLER ENDS 5 DAYS' ORDEAL; AGOG WITH STUNTS

Rich Man's Son Who Stirred Things Up Believed to Be Mentally Unsound.

ONCE ASYLUM INMATE.

Spent Money Lavishly and Sent Advice to Roosevelt, Hughes and Jerome.

The young man is quiet and genial and far from violent, but his conduct fest that his mental processes are in volved in some queer kinks. To-day he elegraphed John D. Rockefeller a re quest to visit him and take an automo bile ride with him. Likewise he sent a long despatch to Frank B. Kellogg suggesting questions that he should put to

He arrived at the King Edward tw weeks ago with several fine portman teaux, a quantity of clothing and a great wad of vellow-backs. He is a short stocky little man with a square jaw smooth, lean cheeks and a nervous, way ering, gray eye. His features a generally set sternly and he walks pom added, with a solemn flourish, "Heav en." Then as he sent his luggage up to his room, he said quietly to the clerk: "That's the best address I've got and I had to go through hell to get it."

Found Way to Beat Jacks. When he registered his name, h

At first, Manager John Hood though was a wealthy young man of whimsical turn and an over-developed fondness for flying about the Tenderloin in automobiles. Often, he would in a big touring car, and he was known in Jack's and other resorts as "The Man From Heaven."

When asked why he always took a carload of girls to Jack's with him, he would reply, "It takes four queens to

When it became generally known that he never drank anything but water and nevertheless manifested an exhilaration at all times that one does not customarily draw from soft beverages his conduct began to excite comment.

Then he fell into the habit of sending telegrams to President Roosevelt, Gov. Hughes and District-Attorney Jerome. That is, he wrote them out and ordered gave the operator pause. In one of his telegrams to the President he suggested that he take all his admirals on a twenty-mile swim, as no admiral was fit to command a fleet unless he could swim twenty miles.

He wrote to Gov. Hughes that he would never get to Heaven unless he learned to ride a white horse. He informed the District-Attorney that if he could win all Thomas F. Ryan's money at dice he might then find a way to send Didn't Like the Asylum.

A few days ago Manager Hood was amination of the young man's effects from heaven." "but I didn't like the Brooklyn lumber man, whose daughter table. They wouldn't let us eat with is trying to prove him mentally inthe mysterious John Smith, who might cut his throat. Some of them had throats.' When informed that his father had to-day, and introduced the name of a teen sent for the young man took it new spook-one that has hitherto not very quietly and said that he would been mentioned in the proceedings. rait in the hotel until he arrived.

"I might as well wait for him." he a lady. Mr. Vanderbilt said replying to

ARCHBOLD IS CALLED TO THE STAND Mrs. Sampson, Who Is Charged

With Murder of Her Husband.

FOG COSIS LIFE IN COLLISION

Naugatuck, With Passengers, and Pequonnock Crash, and Two Men Go Overboard.

Edward Ward Vanderbilt, the wealthy Bridgeport line, bound for Bridgeport, Brooklyn lumber man, whose daughter was run into by the freight boat Since the night of the shooting, when that there was a sur- and in the Pequonnock.

Mrs. Sampson told how she had found carly seventies the profits which had the force of the collision threw two her husband dying on the floor of their been good fell off heavily." men from the deck of the Naugatuck room with a bullet wound from a 22-nto the water. One of them was picks calibre rifle in his breast, the young "Yes, There was rampant speculation tried it and had the marks on their other spirits, was a witness in his de- ed up by the tug Vigilant and the other woman has refused to make any kind and the market shifted rapidly. All After the collision the Naugatuck, the Poquenneck and the Vigilant all disappeared in the fee. News of the accident was brought ashore by Capi. Jackson, of the Astoria ferryboat Harism. He was feeling his way and the market shifted rapidly. All over the country there was a speculation first in the fields and later in the appeared in the fee. News of the accident was brought ashore by Capi. Jackson, of the Astoria ferryboat Harism. He was feeling his way as a speculation first in the fields and later in the first was independent of the market shifted rapidly. All over the country there was a speculation first in the fields and later in the appeared in the fee. News of the accident was brought ashore by Capi. Jackson, of the Astoria ferryboat Harism. river, bound for the Harlem sip at 12.20, when he saw two big stemacs 12.20, when he saw two big stemacs 12.20, when he saw two big stemacs 14.20 of the community to 12.20 the first remarks of grief and 14.20 other map showing the growth of pipe 12.20 the first remarks of discontinuous to 12.20 the first remarks of discontinuous the first remarks of discontinuous

One Man Picked Up.

'Shall I Go Now?' Asks Richest Man in the World After Five Busy Days as a Witness-Refuses to Give List of Railway Holdings

TAKES A FLING AT COURTLY GENTLEMEN OF WALL STREET

Second Star Witness Begins His Story By Telling of the Reckless and Wastelul Conditions in the Early Days of the Oil Industry.

John D. Rockefeller, after five days on the witness stand, was told at 2.20 this afternoon that his examination was completed. He showed no signs of fatigue, and seemingly was ready to keep on answering questions for an indefinite period.

In fact, Mr. Kellogg's signal of dismissal seemed to greatly disappoint the Oil King.

MRS. SAMPSON

Widow of Admiral's Nephew Strangely Killed Must

Face Inquiry.

widow of Harry Sampson, nephew of the time." late Admiral Sampson, who was sup- The witness explained that in those posed to have killed himself Nov. 1 in early days most of the petroleum came the old farmhouse where they lived near from a few counties in Western Pennthe old farmhouse where they lived near yslvania. In 1875 the original "oil country" was about seventy-five miles in day charged with the murder of her length.

At the resumption of the inquest at from 1865 to 1875?" Macedon this morning District-Attorney Gilbert, of Wayne County, told Mrs.
Sampson that she could make a stateSampson that she could make a stateThere were larger concerns at Titusville, ment if she so desired, but that any-thing she said would be used against them were hurriedly-built, make-shift and himself, he said, that Harry Samp-son did not commit suicide, but that he scaport cities of the East, ranging from had come to his death at her hands and | Baltimore to Boston.

The fog which held closely over the of counsel she would not make a state- Oil was marketed to the retailers "mainrity all day to the great impediment of ment. She was then placed under ar- ly by crude advertising and sending out carbor traffic was responsible for a col- rest, formally charged with the murder of samples." Mr. Archbold's testimony dision near Mill Rock, north of Hell of her husband by Sheriff Collins and up to this time was seemingly intended Gate, this afternoon in which one life daughter, Terese, and taken to the very bad way prior to the birth of the is believed to have been lost. The pas- county jail at Lyons. The name of the beneficent Standard Ott, is believed to have been lost. The man from whom Mrs. Sampson repassenger steamer Naugatuck, of the ceived the letter which aroused Sampson the supply and demand between on, of the Astoria ferryboat Hartem. collected in manner, never showing map showing the pipe lines of 1869 in He was teeling his way nerves the even the semblance of grief and it is

CUMMINS CHOSEN SENATOR.

DES MOINES. Nov. 24.—Gov. A. B. Cummins was elected United States seed at the legislature to-day. Cummins was elected United States seed at the legislature to-day. Cummins received 106 votes; Porter, Democrat, 30. Three Republicans won by a score of 10 to the Americans won by a score of 10 to the Cardy. Cummins received 106 votes; Porter, Democrat, 30. Three Republicans won by a score of 10 to the Cardy. Cummins received 106 votes; Porter, Democrat, 30. Three Republicans won by a score of 10 to the Cardy. Cummins received 106 votes; Porter, Democrat, 30. Three Republicans won by a score of 10 to the Cardy. Cummins received 106 votes; Porter, Democrat, 30. Three Republicans won by a score of 10 to the Cardy of th

John D. Archbold. Lawyer Morris Rosenthal questioned him.

Archhold came here, he said, twentyeight years ago from Titusville, Pa. MURDER CHARGE

In reply to questions he said when a boy he clerked in a general store at salem, Ohio. In 1864 he went to Titusville and was employed by an oil shipping firm. In 1867 he became a partner. In 1869 he went into the refining business as a partner in Porter, Martin & Co., in connection with other business, and travelled extensively in the oil

When Business Increased.

"Was the concern a large one?" ROCHESTER, Nov. 24.-Mrs. Georgi-"Yes, for the time. After I joined the ana Sampson, the handsome young was a large oil development about that

"Where were the principal refineries

It was the opinion of the Coroner concerns. There were better refineries that she would be accused of the crime.

Mrs. Sampson replied that on advice harrels, "a difficult and costly process."

He headed toward the boats, but the locative and has been very pepular in vigitant dedged in ahead of hem and Paimyrs and in Enclosive. She has the location, but I did not help to picked one of the men from the water.